

THE HUNGER PROJECT

All proceeds from this concert will go to The Hunger Project: a global, non-profit, strategic organisation committed to the sustainable end of world hunger. The Hunger Project's vision is a world where every woman, man and child leads a healthy, fulfilling life of self-reliance and dignity.

Nicholas Merton MA ATCL will be introducing and performing classical piano music which expresses the dignity and deepest emotions of the Human Spirit.

Pembroke House is an 18minute walk or a 14minute bus journey (168, 172, at London Road Stop E to East Street Stop) from the Elephant and Castle Underground Station. There are no car parking restrictions on a Saturday night.

The Hunger Project UK is a registered charity in England & Wales 1164839 and a company limited by guarantee registered in England & Wales 9583057
